

Oregon Affordable Housing Management Association Presents
The Best of the Basics of Landlord-Tenant Law
Skillbuilding for Subsidized Multifamily Housing Managers
A Boot Camp Casual Friday Program

Join Us On Friday, November 16, 2007, 9 AM To 1:00 PM

Whether you need to meet continuing education requirements for Landlord-Tenant Law or you're a brand new site manager needing training on practically everything, this class is for you! Landlord-Tenant Law Attorney Andy Hahs will cover the following topics:

- Application Process → Rental Documents → Issues During Tenancy
- Termination Notices and → Evictions

Andy will also discuss the changes to domestic violence statutes and towing laws which will go into effect on January 1, 2008. This class is appropriate for managers of HUD and RD-subsidized projects. If you have specific questions you'd like Andy to address, please send them to us in advance so that Andy can add them into the program. Please fax your advance questions to: 503-992-0853 or email them to: oregonahma@verizon.net. Since this class will run through the noon hour, we'll provide expanded refreshments throughout the morning. Oh yes, bring plenty of notepaper!

Speaker Andy Hahs is an attorney with the firm of Bittner & Hahs, P.C. He is a graduate of the University of California at Davis Law School and is admitted to practice in both Oregon and Washington State. Andy has been representing management companies and landlords since the mid-1980's. His firm handles over 100 evictions a month in the Portland area and Vancouver, as well as addressing numerous landlord-tenant issues which do not result in evictions. Andy and his partners are heavily involved in fair housing issues, including advising and defending cases addressing reasonable accommodation and accessibility issues.
